RE: Trespass

Dear Occupant:

The lease held by _____ for this property was terminated on August 9, 1996. As the current occupant, you have not entered into a valid lease with CRIT and no rent has been paid on the property. Therefore, you are in trespass on property of the Colorado River Indian Tribes ("CRIT").

If you wish to continue to use and occupy this property, you must contact Eric Shepard, CRIT Attorney General, at (928) 669-1271 immediately and make arrangements to stay on the property lawfully. Such arrangements will require payment of back rent, interest, payment of any applicable transfer fees, and signing of a current lease with CRIT for the property. If you do not make such arrangements by June 30th, 2010, CRIT will take legal action to remove you from the property, obtain a monetary judgment for damages resulting from your continued trespass, and refer any monetary judgment to the United States for enforcement pursuant to the Federal Debt Collection Procedure Act.

Sincerely,

COLORADO RIVER INDIAN TRIBES
